

Arizona Families Tax Rebate

What is the Arizona Families Tax Rebate?

As a result of Governor Hobbs' 2023 bipartisan budget, you may be eligible for a one-time Arizona Families Tax Rebate if you meet the requirements. This rebate is being issued under Senate Bill 1734 and was signed into law by the governor.

How much is the tax rebate?

For eligible taxpayers, the rebate is $250 per dependent under age 17 and $100 per dependent over age 17 as claimed on their 2021 returns. A taxpayer cannot claim more than three dependents, regardless of age. The maximum amount of a taxpayer's rebate is $750.

Who is eligible for the rebate?

Arizona taxpayers who meet both of these criteria:

- Claimed Arizona's dependent tax credit on their 2021 full year Arizona resident individual income tax returns (Arizona Form 140 or 140A). Must be the primary or first-listed taxpayer if a married filing jointly return was filed.
- Paid at least $1 of Arizona individual income tax on their 2021 returns or paid at least $1 Arizona individual income tax on their 2020 or 2019 Arizona returns under the same filing status as their 2021 return.

How will the rebates be issued?

The rebates will be issued by direct deposit for taxpayers who provided direct deposit information when they filed their returns in 2021 or 2022. Direct deposit rebates are scheduled to be deposited in November 2023.

If the Arizona Department of Revenue (ADOR) does not have a taxpayer's direct deposit information, a paper check will be mailed to the taxpayer's last known address.

How can I check my eligibility and status?

The Arizona Department of Revenue launched a site that contains resources on how to check your eligibility and status. You can check familyrebate.aztaxes.gov for the latest news and updates as more information becomes available.

Additional Questions

You can view a list of frequently asked questions and their answers here.